The shares may be held in registered or bearer form, according to the stockholders' choice.

The Company is entitled, under the applicable laws and regulations, to request information on the identity of the holders of securities granting immediate or future voting rights at its Stockholders' Meetings and the number of voting rights held.

In addition to the disclosure thresholds provided for in the applicable laws and regulations, any individual or corporate shareholder, acting alone and/or in concert, that becomes the owner, directly or indirectly, in any way, as defined in Article L.233-7 et. seq. of the Commercial Code, of a number of shares representing 2% or more of the Company's capital or voting rights is required to notify the Company in writing. Said disclosure must be made within four (4) trading days of the date on which the threshold is crossed and must state the total number of shares and voting rights in the shareholder's possession on the date of the disclosure.

Once a shareholder's interest exceeds the above-mentioned 2% threshold, said shareholder must notify the Company each time an additional threshold of 1% of the capital or voting rights is crossed, even when such notification is not required under the disclosure obligations provided for in the applicable laws and regulations. In addition to the statutory voting rights attached to the shares, each share entitles its holder to a fractional share of the Company's profits and liquidation surplus equal to the fraction of the issued capital represented by the share.

All shares rank pari passu as regards taxation. As a result, they entitle their holders to the same net amount, based on their par value and cum-rights date, for any allocation or return of capital during the Company's life or its liquidation.

The provisions of Article 10-II of the bylaws concerning the number of shares that each Supervisory Board member is required to hold throughout their term of office shall not apply to the Supervisory Board member(s) representing employees.

C) Supervisory Board member representing employee shareholders

- (i) If, at the end of a given financial year, the ownership interest held (as determined in accordance with Article L. 225-102 of the French Commercial Code) by employees of the Company and of related entities within the meaning of Article L. 225-180 of said Code represents over 3% of the Company's capital, a Supervisory Board member representing employee shareholders shall be elected by the Ordinary General Meeting in accordance with the applicable regulations and these bylaws. Nominations for this employee shareholder representative shall be put forward by the supervisory boards of the corporate mutual funds (FCPEs) that hold shares in the Company on behalf of employees and are governed by Article L. 214-165 of the French Monetary and Financial Code.

 - a) All of the FCPE supervisory boards shall hold a special meeting and shall jointly nominate at least one and no more than three candidates for the position. Said candidate(s) shall be selected from among the members of the FCPE supervisory boards who represent employees holding FCPE units and who have put forward their candidature.

- b) At the above-mentioned special meeting, each member of the FCPE supervisory boards shall have one vote in the voting process for each declared candidate. The candidate(s) who receive(s) the largest number of votes cast – subject to a maximum of three candidates – shall be put forward at the Annual Shareholders’ Meeting for election as the Supervisory Board member representing employee shareholders, provided that they receive at least the majority of the votes cast by the FCPE supervisory board members present or represented at the special meeting or casting a postal or electronic vote.
- c) If two declared candidates receive the same number of votes, and if putting both candidates forward for election would result in the maximum number of three nominations referred to in paragraph b) of point (ii) above being exceeded, the candidate with the longest seniority within the Group shall be nominated for election to the Supervisory Board, determined based on the signature date of their employment contract with the Company or with a related entity within the meaning of Article L. 225-180 of the Commercial Code.
- (iii) Prior to the nomination of candidates for the position as Supervisory Board member representing employee shareholders, the Chairman of the Managing Board – or a duly authorised representative – shall prepare a set of Candidate Nomination Regulations (the “Regulations”), which shall describe the timing and organisational framework for the nomination procedure described in point (ii) above.

The Regulations shall be communicated to the members of the FCPE supervisory boards by any method – including, but not limited to, display in a public place and/or electronic communication – prior to the date on which the meeting of the FCPE supervisory boards is held in accordance with the procedure described in point (ii) above.

- (iv) The Supervisory Board member representing employee shareholders shall be elected by the Company’s shareholders in an Ordinary General Meeting in accordance with the conditions applicable to all elections of Supervisory Board members. If more than one nomination is put forward in accordance with the provisions set out in point (ii) above, the Managing Board shall present the nominees in separate resolutions and may recommend that shareholders approve one of said resolutions. The nominee who receives the largest number of shareholder votes shall be elected as the member of the Company’s Supervisory Board representing employee shareholders.
Said Supervisory Board member shall not be taken into account for the purpose of the ceiling on the number of Supervisory Board members set in Article 10-1 A) of these bylaws.

meaning of Article L. 225-180 of the Commercial Code, (ii) a member of an FCPE supervisory board, or (iii) an FCPE unit holder.

If the seat of the Supervisory Board member representing employee shareholders falls vacant, a special meeting of all of the FCPE supervisory boards shall be held to select the nominees for his or her replacement, in accordance with the conditions set out in this Article 10-1 C) of the bylaws.

If the nomination(s) for the vacant seat is/are made at least three months before the next scheduled Ordinary General Meeting, the election of said replacement shall be put to the vote at that Meeting.

If the nomination(s) for the vacant seat is/are made less than three months before the next scheduled Ordinary General Meeting, the election of said replacement shall be put to the vote at the following Ordinary General Meeting. However, if only one nominee for the replacement is selected by the FCPE supervisory boards, and if it is possible to fill the vacant seat by the Supervisory Board appointing a member and the shareholders subsequently ratifying the appointment, then the Supervisory Board may appoint said nominee subject to ratification at the next Ordinary General Meeting.

For the period during which the seat of the Supervisory Board member representing employee shareholders is vacant, the Supervisory Board may hold meetings that will be deemed to be validly constituted.

The provisions of Article 10-II of the bylaws concerning the number of shares that each Supervisory Board member is required to hold throughout their term of office shall not apply to the Supervisory Board member representing employee shareholders.

The term of office of said member shall be governed by all of the provisions of the Company's bylaws as well as the laws and regulations applicable to all Supervisory Board members, subject to the specific provisions of this Article 10-1 C) of the bylaws.

- (vi) The provisions of this Article 10-1 C) shall cease to apply if, at the end of a given financial year, the ownership interest held (as determined in accordance with Article L. 225-102 of the Commercial Code) by employees of the Company and of related entities within the meaning of Article L. 225-180 of said Code represents less than 3% of the Company's capital. II – Each Supervisory Board member shall hold at least twenty-five shares in the Company throughout his or her term.

III – No more than one-third of the individual members of the Supervisory Board and permanent representatives of corporate members may reach or exceed the age of 70 during any given year.
