

Corporate Governance

Banner Bank is a public company with deep roots in community banking. We are responsible to a number of constituencies, including our shareholders, customers, employees and the communities that we serve. In order to fulfill our responsibilities, we believe that we must operate under the highest ethical and professional standards.